LABOR LEADERS HELD GUILTY OF CONTEMPT

GOMPERS, MITCHELL AND MOR-RISON CONVICTED IN COURT OF FEDERAL DISTRICT.

Charged With Publishing Bucks Stove and Range Company's Name on Black List.

By The Associated Press.

Washington, June 24.—Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison and John Mitchell, the labor leaders, were today held guilty of contempt of court by the supreme court of the District of Columbia, in connection with the court's injunction in the Buck's Stove and Range boycott case. They will attempt to appeal again to the supreme court of the United States, which reversed their former conviction.

Bondsmen were on hand and attorneys for the labor men gave notice of an intention to file an appeal to have the supreme court review the judgment.

In its previous review of the case the supreme court reversed the convictions on the ground that contempt proceedings had been improperly instituted. New proceedings were at once begun. The sentences under the first conviction were: Gompers, one year; Morrison, nine months; Mitchell, six months.

The charge was that the three men as officers of the American Federation of Labor, through the organization's official publication, had instigated and published an injunction against the publication of the Buck Stove and Range company's name in its "boycott list."

In passing sentence on President Gompers, the court said: "For the ring leader and chief offender, the duty of the court, if to be ascertained by its obligations to administer the justice of the land, without respect to persons, requires it in determining a penalty appropriate for this the most dangerous and destructive of contempt, at least to parallel the extreme penalty which is fixed by good precedents."

After a lengthy recital of the functions of the law and judicial power, the opinion concludes:

"The evidence shows for these respondents an assiduous and persistent effort to undermine the supremacy of the law by undertaking individually to destroy the confidence of the people in the integrity of the tribunals which maintain it by inoculating the minds of their followers and the people with a virus of mischievous falsehoods and misrepresentations concerning the court and judges, seeking and hopeful that the support of the people might be withdrawn from these tribunals and by this means their power undone, their judgment rendered valueless and forceless."

"The defendants are here at the court bar to answer; they have been afforded full opportunity to hear the evidence against them and to say what, if any, reasons can exist against their punishment. Every part of their response, for they offer no defense, is measured by the words of their leader, Gompers, the things I am charged with, I did; go to with your injunctions."

MR. E. P. CAROTHERS WELLS FARGO CLERK

HANDLES LARGE QUANTITIES OF
"PLANT JUICE" AND TELLS OF HIS PERSONAL EX-PERIENCE.

Mr. E. P. Carothers, clerk for the Wells Fargo Express Company, and living at 1815 Main street, Houston, Texas, handles many of the express shipments of "Plant Juice" that are sent out daily to points where druggists have not yet stocked with this new tonic.

While handling "Plant Juice" packages, Expressman Carothers said:

"I have induced a good many of my friends to try 'Plant Juice,' and have been thanked by all of them for doing it. I had suffered with stomach trouble for over two years.
Maybe longer, but it was bad for that length of time. My food would not digest; my stomach would bloat, gas form and nearly make me sick;
appetite was good enough, but anything I would eat would distress me.
It affected my nerves badly. I did not want to take anything for my nerves that contained an opiate, and I could not get anything to help either my stomach or nerves. Some friend told me of 'Plant Juice,' and I got it and it helped me right from the start. I thought it was too strong at first, but I stuck to it. My stomach is all right now; no more bloating and no more forming of gas; my nerve trouble all disappeared as soon as my food began to digest. I feel like a new man. 'Plant Juice' I believe will do all they recommend it to do; it did in my case."

"Plant Juice" tones up as does no other tonic. It gives immediate relief and lasting results. All forms of stomach troubles, nervousness, sleeplessness depression of spirits, lack of vitality, headache, dull pains in the back, poor circulation cold feet, diseased digestion, etc., are relieved by "Plant Juice." It is a true specific for debility and organic weakness in men and women. It brings a return of buoyant spirits, of cheerfulness and of good health. Call at Old Corner Drug Store and get a bottle of "Plant Juice."

TAFT ASKS MONEY FOR MILITARY MANEUVERS

PRESIDENT SENDS MESSAGE TO CONGRESS RECOMMENDING A $1,150,000 APPROPRIATION.

By The Associated Press.

Washington, June 24.—President Taft today sent a special message to congress recommending the immediate appropriation of $1,150,000 for use of the war department for the use in joint encampment of the regular army and the state militia. The president also asked an appropriation of $167,000 for urgent necessities of the war department. Both items were in the general army appropriation bill which the president vetoed.

The message was referred to the committee on military affairs after Chairman Hay indicated that action would be taken to enable the war department and the national guard to go ahead with plans for the maneuvers. The first will be at Manassas, Va., beginning July 5.

It is stated at the war department that the projected maneuvers will be so much larger than anything of the kind ever attempted before in this country that they may fairly claim to equal in extent the annual maneuvers of the great European military powers.

According to the plan announced today, state organizations are to participate in the joint maneuvers with the regular army. Among designated maneuver dates are:

Anniston, Ala., July 6-Aug. 4—
Alabama, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Florida, Georgia and Kentucky.
Alexandria, La., July 8-Aug. 6—
Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas.
Fort Leavenworth and Riley, Kansas, Aug. 19-28—Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma.

Dates set for joint coast defense exercises of the militia and regulars at coast fortifications include North Carolina, August 5-16.

SAYS LA FOLLETTE LEADER IS TO BLAME

McGOVERN STATES THROUGH HOUSE FRAUDULENT DEL-EGATES WERE SEATED.

By The Associated Press.

Madison, Wis., June 24.—Senator
La Follette's defeat in the Chicago convention was attributed by Governor McGovern this afternoon to the "mismanagement of his campaign—a mismanagement that was well nigh criminal."

The governor said that Walter
L. Houser, the La Follette manager, "is responsible for the election of Senator Root and so of the whole cavalade of calamities that followed."

Governor McGovern, in a long statement in justification of his candidacy for temporary chairman of the national convention, presented figures to show that had he been elected chairman, the net Taft strength would have been 480 and the net Roosevelt strength 470.

"Had I been elected temporary chairman," said McGovern, "and ruled that the 78 contested delegates should be disqualified until lawfully seated—and I should have so ruled—there, of course, would have been an appeal from the decision, but to support this appeal were only 480 Taft delegates, while to sustain the chair the Roosevelt, Cummins and La Follette delegates would have been united and the chair would have been sustained."

"The contests would thereupon have been referred to the committee on credentials, which would have brought, as it did, majority and minority reports. The Taft men would have tried to force the adoption of the majority report in each instance without assistance, they had not votes enough to accomplish this result."

"The Roosevelt men would have tried in each instance to get the adoption of the minority report in like manner, without assistance, they had not votes enough to do so.
Who held the balance of power Clearly it was the La Follette delegates."

MEXICANS LINK UP

Rebels Threaten "Gingoes" With Death Unless Given Million.
Take Less.

By The Associated Press.

El Paso, Tex., June 24.—Seventeen Americans in Valardena, fifty miles west of Torreon, Mexico, and about 300 miles south of the American border, were recently lined up against a barn while a half dozen drunk-crased rebels brandished six-shooters in their faces and threatened summary execution unless a million dollars ransom was forthcoming.

The rebels abandoned their orgy
when $3,500 in gold was paid them.
This incident, one of a series of atrocities committed by the Mexican revolutionists under Generals Cam-pa and Arguedas in the vicinity of Torreon, was first made public by a party of eye-witnesses to the scenes enacted in the interior, who arrived here today.

Americans, they said, feared to make public their troubles.

Nothing short of the very best is ever offered, and the Waco buying—the discriminating public—is not slow to recognize this fact.

Catering to a high-class trade with high-grade food products is our business.

And that is how its "pull" was acquired. A long, hard pull but a winner every time.

AUSTIN AVENUE HOMES SELL FOR HIGH PRICE

DUKE, McLARTY AND McCULLOUGH PAY $31,300 FOR 130-FOOT FRONTAGE.

Deeds conveying property at 912 and 915 Austin avenue for a total of $31,300 were filed in the county clerk's office Monday by J. W. Riggins. The new purchasers are Duke, McLarty and McCullough. It comprises a frontage of 130 feet on the north side of Austin avenue, beginning 140 feet west of Ninth street, and has a depth of 165 feet. On it are located the residences occupied by Mrs. L. A. Shumway and Mr. Grigsby.

Purchase of the property at 912 and 915 Austin is due to the inability of Duke, McLarty and McCullough to secure the J. E. Stone home at the corner of Austin avenue and Eighth street. The realty dealers were willing to pay $70,000 for that site, but the title could not be perfected. Mr. Duke said last night that the property was purchased for an investment.

ENGLAND'S SURPLUS TO BE USED TO CUT DEBT

London, June 24.—The rumors that David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, proposed to devote a part of the surplus of $32,500,000 for the reduction of all debt, which led to an improvement in the price of consols on the market, were confirmed this afternoon when the chancellor announced in the house of commons that $25,000,000 was to be used in the reduction of debt and $5,000,000 for the construction of ships for the navy department in the year, in order to meet Germany's navy increase. This, he said, would involve heavier changes subsequently.

EVERYTHING

That goes into a glass of good soda water is a wholesome FOOD. A dime buys a greater food-value in an ice cream soda than in any other beverage for the price.

There is nothing in soda water except pure carbonated water sweetened with pure cane-sugar syrup and flavored with your choice of crushed or whole fruits, fruit syrups or some other aromatic flavor; with or without ice cream. Encourage the children to drink soda water. It not only nourishes and strengthens them because of its food value, but the carbonated water in it is a gentle aid to digestion. It is wholesome and beneficial to grown people too. The kind we make is pure, clean and wholesome. Our EGG drinks are the thing for thin people.

In arranging for their service as hostess for the Saturday tea at the Huaco club, Mesdames Norman Shumaker, J. W. Bass, William Cameron, James Mistrof, H. M. Minier and Ernest Groos robbed the prairies of their wealth of sunflowers and massed the gorgeous glow of blossom about the club rooms. In addition, a Victrola concert was given and it was much appreciated for the unusually good records provided. The tea service patronized the sunflower tone. There was a large attendance, many out of town guests being included. This, the third in the series, was as popular as the two preceding teas, and is evidence that the innovation into Huaco life is acceptable.

SOME THOUGHTS UPON RIGHT OF WOMAN IN THE LAW.

There is a place in the world where woman owns the home and all its contents, and possesses the right to evict her husband if he mistreats her. But that is not in Texas. In this state a woman is classed with lunatics and children. She can not enter into contract to pay money even if that money be her very own, earned by the sweat of her brow, because a dissipated, no account husband fails to make it for her. If a woman dies and bequeaths her money, it at once comes under the exclusive control of her husband. He can take possession and use it regardless of his wife's wishes. How many married women know these facts? Perhaps there is no necessity for them to be known to the average woman whose husband provides for her and looks out for her interests. But how about the poor woman with a drunkard for a husband or a man who is utterly unscrupulous.

A MODEL COTTAGE HOME OUT ON NORTH SIXTH

There is at the extension of North Sixth a tiny little home, scarce more than three rooms, humble in its every pretense. And yet this home stands as a model for every other in the city, not reserving the attitudinal mansion. There is evidence of the caretaker everywhere. Scrupulously neat, the lawn in perfect order and smooth as velvet, the walks neat in gravel, the vines trimmed—all as beautiful as can be. And yet no expenditure other than love for home upon the part of the occupants. The lesson is, that no matter how humble in pretense, a home can be made a joy and a beauty.

WOMEN SUFFRAGISTS DEMAND PLANK FROM REPUBLICANS

It was indeed the clever scheme upon the part of the women who are leaders for suffrage to demand of the Republican convention a plank which shall give them the vote. The six states now allowing the woman's ballot are all overwhelmingly Republican. The women threaten to withdraw their vote from any Republican measure if the other states are not allowed suffrage; at least, if the convention does not declare for suffrage. This places the Republican men in rather an unenviable position. To alienate the women's vote in the six suffrage states is to give the Democratic party a decided advantage. To insert the plank is to give victory to the women who claim the ballot. In the meantime, the women who are not personally concerned are watching the situation with interest. The Taft platform ignores the women. The question now is, what will the Roosevelt declaration contain?

Society Notes.

Miss Jimmie Higgins and her guest, Miss Harwood of Tennessee, will join a week-end house party with Miss Florence West at West. With the return of Mrs. W. H. Johnson her pretty home on West Austin was reopened. Mrs. Johnson had been on a visit of several weeks to her sisters in Arizona.

Miss Honour Wolfe writes that she meets every encouragement in her venture of a million dollar woman's hotel for London. She goes over from New York to London in July. This means material steps towards her enterprise.

A post card bearing the famous "Little church around the corner" in New York City comes from Mrs. J. B. Cornish, announcing her safe arrival by water, sight-seeing in the city, and an early departure for the great seaside resort, Atlantic City.

After detention for more than two weeks at the sanitarium, Mrs. Lee Dewey is at home, regaining her strength rapidly, and ready to see her friends.

Mrs. Seth Strong of Dallas, is due from Houston. She spends a few days here and will be accompanied in her home-going to Dallas by Misses Jennie Moore and Eric Evans.

It is noted with pleasure by many that Miss Minnie Graves will be a member of the city school corps with another year. Miss Graves, the sister of Mrs. Ed McCullough, has been a frequent visitor here, and the friends whom she has met are now pleased that she is to become permanent. She will teach penmanship and drawing.

It is heard that Miss Dixie Wood has been quite sick since her vacation trip to Hubbard.

Many are expressing approbation that society has taken so kindly to our prairie flowers this season. No state boasts a greater variety nor more beautiful wild flowers, and it is a mark of patriotism that our women are now honoring their presence. First, the buffalo clover, and then the succession as they have appeared. The present sunflower recalls the days of our childhood when we went to hear Patience. Here, the sunflower was buried. Who knows, though, but this same burlesque was the means of attracting our attention to one of the most stately and brilliant of all our field flowers?

In the summer absence of Mrs. Forest Goodman, Saint Paul's Guild is adjourned until the cool weather season.

After two weeks at the sanitarium Mrs. Eugene Early is at home, but still confined to her room.

The Tuesday bridge club is in session this morning with Mrs. Lewis Early, on North Fourteenth.

It is the present intention of Mrs. Ed Hardin to come up from Temple for two months. She will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. and Mr. J. N. Harris, on the east side. The Domestic club has had a letter from Mrs. Forest Fort, who is a summer sojourner at Asheville. She wrote that the scenery and life of the North Carolina mountains, as picturesque and exhilarating as it is, can not still the longing for home and friends.

Mrs. A. B. Cowan writes that she is charmingly situated in Denver for another two weeks. At this time she will be joined by Mr. Cowan for a trip to California.

Mrs. Joel Westbrook and Miss Marguerite Westbrook are now at Atlantic City, quite pleasantly situated. The first opportunity for chaperonage finds Miss Virginia Westbrook leaving Switzerland to join them.

The sojourners at the coast send back the exasperating news that the fish simply will not bite. Perhaps the finny inhabitants of the deep will behave better later in the season.

The Ewing-Warner-Barrett-Smith party writes from Los Angeles of a delightful trip so far. Sight, weather, meeting old Wacoans and general good time is the order of their life.

If you are off for a summer absence, chloroform the cat rather than leave it to starve. To be humane is not to be morbid in sentiment.

Gayety is still undiminished. At this pace, society at home will not realize when the heated term begins and ends.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith, Miss Susie Sleeper, Mrs. Morse, with others in prospect, will attend the Kerrville Chautauqua this season. It opens on Thursday July.

If their boat arrived on schedule time, Mrs. William Breustedt and Miss Pauline Breustedt are enjoying their first day's travel in Europe today. They landed at Naples, and probably are today in the famous "Campi".

Miss Ida Orand is this week's guest of Mrs. Nelson Smith.

In her card courtesy to Miss Lucy Early on Wednesday afternoon, Miss Nannette McClintock will introduce as her household guests Misses Lucy D. Kasee of Marlin, and Juliet Seebor of San Antonio.

Society Personals.

Miss Juliet D. Kasee of Marlin, is the guest of Miss Nannette McClintock, on West Washington. Mesdames John Fisher and Reeves of the south side, are entertaining this week Mrs. Felix Parsons, of Dallas, and Miss Haydee Reichel of San Antonio.

Miss Juliet Seebor of San Antonio, arrives today to be the guest of Miss Nannette McClintock.

Miss Helen Garrison, the recent visitor to Mrs. William Early, has returned home to Austin.

After a visit to her relatives and friends here, Mrs. Otis Johnson has made her home trip to Georgia.

Among the departures of Monday was that of Miss Florence West for her home in West. She had been with Miss Jimmie Higgins for a few days.

Miss Mary Louise White, who was with Miss Ruth Lennox on Terrace Row, has returned home to Fort Worth.

Among late departures is that of Miss Silberberg for her home in Memphis, Tenn. She had been on a visit to Miss Charlotte Naman, North Thirtieth.

Miss Charlotte Naman is spending three weeks in Marlin.

Miss Bess Long of Eighteenth and Jefferson, is at home from Taylor, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Hyman Melaskey, who will remain two weeks.

Mrs. De Steiguer of San Marcos, who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore, on South Third, has made her home trip.

Miss Mirvyn Byars of North Fourteenth, has for her guest, Miss Cora Haron, of Calvert.

Miss Pauline Foster is with friends in Tyler.

Mrs. Suberville, formerly Miss Pamela Burke, of New Iberia, La., is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. B. Mistrof, 19th and Morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brooks, with Charles, Jr., of North 11th street, took an automobile trip to Marlin on Monday.

WANT NO MORE ALLEGED NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

By The Associated Press Chicago, June 24.—Robt. E. Dowell, president of the National Press association, which is composed chiefly of editors and publishers of country newspapers, delivered an address at the annual meeting of the organization today, urging the members to do all in their power to make impossible the "holding of a convention of the character of the one just closed." He added:

"But we should not leave out party unless that party refuses to stand for the principles which we believe redound to the best interests of the great mass of citizens of the nation."

MANY SERIOUSLY HURT
DURING STRIKE RIOTING

ONE PROBABLY FATALITY IN-JURED AS RESULT OF DIS-TURBANCE IN NEW YORK.

By The Associated Press.
Hastings-on-the-Hudson, June 24.—One man is probably fatally hurt and five other persons, including a woman, lie seriously injured to-night victims of renewed hostilities this afternoon in the strike, declared about ten days ago at the plant of the National Conduit and Cable company.

P. Stilleck has a bullet in his stomach and is not expected to recover. Michael Rocco was shot in the right leg, and Tony Reg in the left arm. Mrs. Tom Crazie was shot through the abdomen. An unidentified man was operated upon for a bullet wound in the left shoulder. Michael Zittisazi was shot in the left leg.

The trouble took place after the company announced it would take back those of the men who wished to resume work at the old scale. About 600 accepted the offer and took their places this morning. This afternoon, on their return from lunch they were attacked by a mob.

AVIATOR FALLS WITH A BIPLANE; MAY DIE

INSTRUCTOR IN ARMY FLYING
SCHOOL IS PROBABLY FA-TALLY INJURED.

By The Associated Press.
Washington, June 24.—Paul Hamilton, an instructor at the United States army aviation school, College Park, Md., was perhaps fatally injured this evening in an aero-plane accident.

Hamilton was flying alone in a biplane and was up 100 feet when the machinery suddenly fell to the ground and was smashed into pieces. The aviator was pinned beneath the wreckage, but was quickly executed by signal corps men. He was hurried to a hospital here, where it was said his injuries might prove fatal.

DARROW'S COUNSEL ASK DICTOGRAPH IN RECORD

Want Alleged Evidence of Bribery of Talesmen to Go Before the Jury.

By The Associated Press.
Los Angeles, June 24.—Clarence S. Darrow's attorneys started a legal battle today to get into the record the stenographic reports of conversations between Darrow and John R. Harrington, his former chief investigator, which were transmitted by a secret telephonic device.

The prosecution objected strenuously. The conversations, Harrington testified today, were arranged by him to trap Darrow into admitting that he had been guilty of trying to bribe jurors in the McNamara trial.

Decision on the point was not given. Harrington said Oscar F. Lawler, who was special counsel for the government in investigating the widespread dynamitings which preceded the McNamara arrest, had persuaded him to come to Los Angeles from Chicago to try to entrap Darrow. Lawler and a detective, employed by the National Erectors association, he said, arranged the telephonic device in a hotel room to talk to Darrow after first notifying Lawler.

DECLARES HE WON $80,000
FROM KING AT POKER

East St. Louis Gambler Claims He Beat the Late King's Set of Fours On a One Card Draw.

Special to The Morning News.

How the late King Edward VII of England last $80,000 to J. J. O'Toole, a gambler, in a poker game and presented a gold purse to O'Toole in recognition of his superior ability in the game, was told before Justice of the Peace William B. Bell today.

According to the testimony, O'Toole won the $80,000 and King Edward's administration as well, by beating a "pat" set of fours held by King Edward, with a set of four eights.

"His majesty had his fours all the time, and I pulled in one of my eights after holding up three eights and an ace for a 'kicker,'" O'Toole said. "And then King Edward presented a gold purse to me."

The story of the poker game came out at the hearing of Frank Wilkins, formerly a saloonkeeper, charged with larceny as bailor.

The Mistrot-Calahan Co.'s Money Raising Sale

We were asked repeatedly last week how we managed to keep interest up so long, and the enthusiasm at such a high pitch in our Money Raising Sale. Our reply was simply, "WE HAD TO." We were confronting a condition and as the CASH had to come from exchange of our wares and merchandise, we knew that no half-hearted measures would bring success. We knew, also, that we were stirring up a hornet's nest and that unloading sales would be plentiful. We knew that a discerning public would weigh values and prices with great care, so the conclusion was that to win we had to cut prices to the quick. That's the story of the success of the Greatest Merchandising Movement ever attempted in Waco. This is to be the record week. We can't advertise everything, and we may have overlooked the very item you are interested most in; make it a point to visit our store often—you will find counter after counter loaded with bargains which no one else will attempt to duplicate. LOWER FREIGHT RATES
ARE ASKED AT HEARING

SPECIAL EXAMINER FOR INTER-STATE COMMERCE COM-MISSION IN WACO.

Hearing of two cases involving freight rates to Texas and the southwest occupied the attention Monday in the federal court rooms of Special Examiner Marshall of the interstate commerce commission. J. C. D'Nard, traffic manager of the Waco freight bureau, represented the local complainants, in one action, Reeves & Rotan vs. the Cotton Belt railway and connecting lines. The case was predicated on a shipment of automobiles from the east, and the testimony was concluded and will be forwarded to Washington.

In the second case C. M. Patillo asked reparation from the Atlanta & West Point railway and connections for alleged overcharges on a shipment of household goods from West Point, Ga. A rate of 93 cents was charged and it is contended that only 52 should have been noted. The defendants asked for a continuance until this morning in order to introduce other witnesses, and it was granted.

Mr. Dillard, in discussing the latter case last night, said that the high rate shipments of household goods from east of the Mississippi to Texas discouraged immigration to this section. He says that the household goods interstate freight rate south of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi is nominal and that the same applies to interstate traffic west of the Mississippi, but that the rate west across the Mississippi is almost prohibitive when it is considered that the rate on a car load of new furniture is only a little different from that on second-hand or household goods.

Two foreign cases were also heard by Examiner Marshall yesterday.

CLOTHING FIRM IS PLEASED WITH SALES

On last Friday R. L. Matthews Co. inaugurated its summer "good clothes" sale, and is continuing the sale this week. Though, with one or two exceptions, the days have not been as hot as usual at this season of the year, the cool breezes that have blown have not lessened the success of the Matthews sale. Summer is not yet half done and the prevailing prices are a big inducement to buy now.

"We are greatly pleased over the success of our 'good clothes' sale; in fact, it has been better than we had expected it would be," said Mr. Lambert, manager of R. L. Matthews & Co. "but our combination of low price and quality is a drawing card they cannot resist. The sale will continue all the week, and we expect it to grow bigger and better every day while it lasts."

Evelyn Fears Thaw Will Kill Her if He Leaves Matewan

By The Associated Press.

White Plains, N. Y., June 24.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw still fears that if her husband gets out of Matewan he will try to kill her, she testified today at the hearing of Harry K. Thaw's application for release from the asylum on the contention that he now is sane.

"I am afraid that if Thaw is released he will kill me, as he has threatened to do," she volunteered during cross-examination by counsel for Thaw.

Mrs. Thaw seemed excited again when she made this declaration, but Thaw put a fan to his face, and with a smile turned to his mother and whispered something to her which made her smile.

Mrs. Thaw declared she was an unwilling witness. "I have always wanted to have my marriage annulled and get out of this business," she said. She still is being paid $5,000 a month by Thaw.

Clifford W. Hartridge, Thaw's former counsel, and Dr. Chas. G. Wagner, head of the state hospital for the insane at Binghamton, were witnesses today. The latter testified that Thaw had told him he had meant to kill White, but that "providence had intervened and had taken the matter in hand."

ASKS REBELS TO LAY DOWN.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 24.—Every hour today added to the dead in last night's accident at Eagle Park, Grand Island, when fifty feet of an excursion dock collapsed and dropped 169 persons into the Niagara river. The semi-darkness, the terrible current of the river at that point, and the confusion served to cover up for a time the full extent of the catastrophe. Up to tonight seventeen bodies had been recovered and identified, and there was a list of eleven more who were known to have been at the park and had not yet been accounted for.

The accident has brought out strikingly the entire absence of dock inspection. Federal authorities deny any responsibility in this respect, stating that their duty ends with steamboat inspection. There is no county official here who has responsibility going that river resorts are in proper condition. District Attorney Dudley visited the scene today, but he will take no action until an inquest is held.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE

some progressive and to support his claim before the convention. If I fail to find a man to lead the fight my name will be presented as a candidate for temporary chairman. I have no way of knowing how the convention stands, but the democrats of the national committee have done enough to justify me in suffering defeat if necessary. One republican party is enough in this country for whatever we may call ourselves, if we cannot distinguish ourselves from them in our actions, people will not pay much attention to our words.

There was a cheer from the delegates and visitors who swarmed in Mr. Bryan's room when the Nebraskaan concluded his statement. Mr. Bryan was in conference late tonight with his assistant mapping out tomorrow's contest before the convention, which meets at noon.

That the national committee felt the potency of Mr. Bryan's influence became apparent early this afternoon when a recess was taken to permit a "peace committee" to call on him. The first move of this committee, composed of National Chairman Norman E. Mack and Vice Chairman Hall, and was to bring Judge Parker and Mr. Bryan together at a conference.

Parley Rectifies Speech. It was said that Judge Parker went over many of the points of his "heresy" speech with Mr. Bryan in the hope of convincing him of the progressive note that it would strike.

The effort was unavailing. Mr. Bryan soon left the conference held at the national committee headquarters, asserting that while the interview was pleasant, indeed, he had failed to change his attitude on the temporary chairmanship. As the doors of the conference room opened and Mr. Bryan stepped briskly out, Judge Parker could be seen within looking wistfully out over the city. The conference had been held on one of the upper floors of the hotel.

A moment later Mr. Bryan had disappeared. Chairman Mack came out and asked where he had gone. When told, however, he made no effort to follow, returning to the conference room for a few minutes with Judge Parker and Vice Chairman Hall. These three finally emerged and they announced that the committee would go ahead and approve the selection of Judge Parker, let the fight come as it would.

Fight to Follow Prayer. It will come after the opening prayer has been uttered by Cardinal Gibbons tomorrow, when National Committee Chairman Mack presents the name of Judge Parker as temporary chairman.

The convention will get under way tomorrow with seven avowed presidential aspirants in the field, none of them with enough delegates instructed or pledged to carry them near the two-thirds vote required to nominate—728. It had been expected by many observers that during the two weeks preceding the convention some of the aspirants might form a coalition, but no such thing has occurred, and this fact, Mr. Bryan's friends declare, augurs well for him. Mr. Bryan will have his opportunity to speak before the convention towards its close, and some of the presidential boomers plainly are nervous as to the effect he might have.

If he loses as temporary chairman of the convention Mr. Bryan is slated by his state delegation for the committee on rules, and undoubtedly will be chosen its chairman. As such he would have a leading part in framing the party platform and would present it in person to the convention just prior to calling the roll of states for presidential nominations.

Seven Avowed Candidates.

The seven avowed presidential aspirants are Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, Speaker Champ Clark of Missouri, Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, Governor Harmon of Ohio, Governor Simeon Baldwin of Connecticut, Governor John E. Hurk of North Dakota, and Governor T. R. Marshall of Indiana.

Possibilities Mentioned.

Outside of these the men most talked of are Mr. Bryan, Mayor Gaynor of New York and Governor John A. Dix of New York. Mr. Bryan frequently during the last few months has declared he was not in any sense a candidate, but it is difficult to find a state delegation in which he is not discussed as a possibility. One claim has put forward that Mr. Bryan's presence in the field might encourage a coalition with some of the disaffected republicans interested in a third party movement.

Up to this time, however, delegates have given comparatively little thought to the presidency. The sharp contest between Mr. Bryan and the majority of the national committee over the selection of Judge Parker as temporary chairman has overshadowed everything else.

Those in charge of the various candidates are doing all in their power, however, to create noise and enthusiasm for their principles. In contrast to the methods of the Chicago convention, the statements put out merely extol the respective candidates without casting aspersions on the others.

The strength of the secondary candidates could develop in the event of a deadlock could not be determined tonight. Governor Marshall will receive the 30 votes of Indiana on the first ballot, but no other immediate strength is visible for him. Mayor Gaynor's boom at present is wrapped up in the activities of several "headquarters," which have opened headquarters, but it depends upon Mr. Bryan's attitude on the temporary chairmanship and the outcome of the fight to be made on the floor tomorrow whether New York's 90 votes will go to Gaynor, Dix or some other New York favorite, or will be thrown into the support of one of the recognized candidates.

The Indiana delegation at its meeting last night renewed allegiance to Governor Marshall.

For a time Governor Marshall's candidacy held the undivided attention of the crowds on the streets and in the hotel lobbies.

The New York Gaynor club and the Italian Gaynor club of New York arrived with a big delegation today and were met by the Maryland Gaynor club. The combination has headquarters, bands and parades to boom the candidacy of the New York mayor, notwithstanding the fact that there is yet no certainty that his name will be presented.

Governor Burke of North Dakota, who is to receive ten votes from that state on the first ballot, has thus far figured but little in the activities, is most nearly the typical "dark horse."

WACO WINS THIRD GAME OVER SAN ANTONIO 9-0

AYERS "RECALLED," ENGELBREIT, RECRUIT, GOES IN BOX, SLAUGHTER COMES.

Lohman Wild, but Support in the Pinches Keeps Visitors From Crossing the Plate.

(By Whoopie)

Whether the big score, the early wildness of Lohman, the corresponding wildness of Ayres in the box for San Antonio, or the total inability of Engelbreit, a San Antonio recruit, to pitch, was the feature of Monday's game with San Antonio, in which Waco won by a 9 to 0 shutout score is a question. There's plenty to be charged in each column, and with the exception of entering a few credits to Lohman's account, several bottles of red ink will be necessary to close the ledger.

Ayres, an Austin castoff, who had the greatest time of his sweet young life hurrahing Waco fans during San Antonio's previous visit here, was the first goat yesterday.

Things had been quiet up to the sixth, and up to the last half, for that matter. Manager Hardy then came to the players' bench and said: "Now's the time to win; he's up in the air." How do I know? I was sitting right behind the Waco players' dugout and heard it. So did the Navigators, every blessed one of them, seemingly, for Duguey, at the head of the batting list, was the first up, and Lohman, at the foot, was the last at bat. With the bases full he knocked a grounder to shortstop, Carson being caught at second. Three runs had been made, however, on one hit, and it was enough. In the seventh Engelbreit was rushed in as relief and six runs were scored, but that's another part of the story, even if the entire lineup, and Duguey twice, did face the "relief" in that season.

San Antonio's only threat to score occurred in the seventh, when a recurrence of wildness found a victim in Lohman. After Smith had knocked a foul fly, Burke was caught, Lohman passed Leidy, Burke hit for a single. Goodwin, who went in to pinch hit for Ayres, was also passed, and then, with the bases full, Seitz and McKinnon, the first in the lineup, until the sixth, when Duguey, first up, reached first on Midkiff's error. Akin also reached first, being hit by Ayres, who fielded the ball, but was caught at second on an attempted steal. Ayres then passed Crichlow and McLaurin, hit for two bases, scoring. Akin, who had been hit by Lohman, passed Seitz, and then, with the bases full, Seitz and McKinnon, the first in the lineup, until the sixth, when Duguey, first up, reached first on Midkiff's error. ## WATSON WARNS BRYAN.

Louisville, Ky., June 24—Foreseeing, he declared, the possibility of a re-enactment at Baltimore of scenes at Chicago, Henry Waterson today sent a lengthy telegram to Chairman Mack of the national Democratic committee at Baltimore, making a plea for Democratic harmony. He says he opposed Judge Parker for temporary chairman, but adds:

"What the Democrats at this time most need and require is the pooling of issues, not the raising of disturbances. I especially hope Mr. Bryan will see the force of this. Like myself, I am his friend. I fear that if Mr. Bryan, thrice the nominee of the party for president, should begin by taking the floor to oppose Parker, once its nominee, he will not only raise the standard of factions, but will run the risk of being a second Roosevelt."

INJURED HIS DERBY HAT.

Wichita, Kas., June 24—John L. Payton, a civil engineer for the Orient railroad, wants the court to give him a divorce, claiming his wife ran her parasol through his derby hat and tore up the coat he gave to her on her birthday. They have four children.

Payton says his wife gets up in the middle of the night and throws kitchen utensils at him while he is asleep. They were married at Harrison, Ark.

COTTON MARKET IS A TRIFLE UNSETTLED

TRADING IS GENERALLY QUIET AND FLUCTUATIONS COMPARATIVELY NARROW.

By The Associated Press.

New York, June 24.—The cotton market appeared to be rather unsettled today, but trading was generally quiet and fluctuations comparatively narrow, with an early loss partly recovered and the close very steady, net unchanged to 5 points lower.

The opening was barely steady at a decline of 5 to 9 points in sympathy with lower cables, good weather in the south over Sunday and on scattering liquidation, which was particularly prominent in the case of July. The initial decline carried October contracts off to 11.40 and there again appeared to be a good demand around that level from some of the leading trade interests.

The buying was by no means aggressive, but with offerings comparatively limited and with some of the private crop news rather less favorable than seemed consistent with expectations of a July bureau up to the ten year average, the market steadied.

After a rally to about Saturday's closing figures, prices again eased off slightly owing to a continuation of scattering July liquidation, supposed to be in preparation for no decisions next Friday, but no weakness developed and last prices were within a point or two of the best.

Liverpool attributed the decline there to favorable weather reports from this side and continental realizing, while some of the early selling may have been encouraged by smaller English spot sales.

The close was very steady.

MAIDENS AND MAGNOLIAS.

Yesterday the waxen-petaled magnolia breather forth its sweetest of perfumes to all who passed the library table on which it stood in all its perfect beauty, its snowy whiteness unspoiled by any spot or stain and its deep-green leaves fresh with life and strength—wondrously exquisite—just as God had made it. But the flower was too fair to have undisturbed peace; its beauty attracted many near it, some unstintedly admiring it and others envying its perfection; and soon the wilting breath of thoughtless ones had passed across its petals. Today it no longer delights the eye of man for its blackened petals are but sad and shadowy suggestions of its glory of yesterday. The tinging breath has changed its perfect white beauty to stained and darkened ugliness; and, though a haunting fragrance is still present, it is the fragrance of crushed roses, yielded only after pain, and cannot equal the sweetness of yesterday. It is the same with perfect girlhood. Today the most beautiful maiden of them all may bloom in her sweetness, the innocence of her white character a thing of beauty for all to admire, and the purity of her soul far sweeter than the most fragrant incense of the East or the precious perfumes of Arabia. But, like the matchless magnolia, her perfection attracts the attention of the passersby and soon the staining breath of gossip and slander begin to mar the whiteness of her loveliness until today there is only the bruised and spotted remnant of the once beautiful character, with only the faintest suggestion of the exquisite perfume that clung to it—a broken blossom, a marred magnolia!

The expression that "what cannot be cured must be endured" does not mean that it cannot be improved. For conditions are so bad that honest trying will fail to help ameliorate them.

WHAT IS WRITTEN UPON YOUR FACE?

Did you ever stop to think what your face may reveal to one interested in reading countenances? Perhaps you yourself have indulged in this pleasant pastime of analyzing the character of others from their faces, and have spent many minutes which otherwise would have been very lonesome to you, in this diversion. If you have you can perhaps study your own face and try to see just how many of your uppermost and strongest characteristics are there displayed. Does your face show serenity of character, or a stormy, easily disturbed condition? Is patience written thereon, or do you see quick, ill-temper? Have care and worry left their distressing lines there, or has your calm life left its freshness in its original state? Is your face hard and avaricious or is it kindly? What is your expression? Study your face hard and decide for yourself whether your good or bad traits are written there and thus judge which are uppermost in your life and character. If you find worry, impatience, crossness, cruelty or harshness there where there should be ease, patience, repose and love, attempt with all the power within you to rectify these faults while you may; in order that your life may be a blessing instead of a burden on mankind.

There is beauty and love in everything if you will only seek it out. If you have not found it, the fault lies with you, not with the object of your search. You have either failed to look deep enough, or have used the wrong methods.

Many persons dread criticism acutely, not realizing that it is as necessary to true success as bread and meat is to physical up-keep. We are far from perfect and all of us realize this to a certain extent; yet at times we are really blind to our faults as others see them. Thus we allow them to grow upon us unknowingly until they have become a part of our characters. Criticism does not necessarily mean correction or abuse, but more truly an honest and sincere statement of facts for our own good. It is often very hard to take criticism in the right spirit, but perhaps it will be easier for us if we consider it in this light. We must be criticized or we cannot make good men and women; and the best criticism is the honest, unbiased opinion of a good friend who is interested in our welfare. We should not be too quick to resent this, which is truly a part of our make-up, or the day will arrive when we will regret our lack of foresight. We should encourage kindly criticism of the right kind, as we will thus be made better men and women.

There are very few things in this world really worth doing that do not require some real, earnest and concentrated effort.

Dust stands for disease, disease for death; therefore, eradicate dust.

"A good deed is the best prayer."

COLUMBUS.

Behind him lay the gray Azores; Behind him the gates of Hercules; Before him not the ghost of shores; Before him only shoreless seas; The good mate said: "Now must we pray."

For lo! the very stars are gone. Brave Adm'l. speak: "What shall I say?"

"Why, say: 'Sail on! Sail on and on!'"

"My men grow mutinous day by day; My men grow gruffly, wan and weak"; The stout mate thought of home; a Of salt wave washed his swarthy cheek.

"What shall I say, brave Adm'l. say: If we sight naught but seas at dawn?"

"Why, you shall sing at break of day: 'Sail on! Sail on and on!'"

They sailed and sailed, as winds might blow. Until at last the blanched mate said:

"Why, now not even God would know Should I and all my men fail dead These winds forget their way, For God from these seas is gone. Now speak, brave Adm'l. speak and say—"

He said: "Sail on! Sail on and on!"

They sailed. They sailed. Then spoke the mate:

"This mad sea shows his teeth tonight; He curls his lips, he lies in wait! With lifted teeth, as if to bite! Brave Adm'l. say but one good word: What shall we do when hope is gone?"

The words leapt like a leaping sword: "Sail on! Sail on and on!"

Then, pale and worn, he kept his deck, And peered through darkness Ah, that night: "Of all dark nights! And then a speck."

A light! A light! A light! A light! It grew. A starlit flag unfurled! It grew to be Time's burst of dawn.

He gained a world; he gave that world Its grandest lesson: "On! Sail on!"

Bryan Will Fix Up Most of Platform; In His Pocket Now

By The Associated Press.

Baltimore, June 24.—If Mr. Bryan should not be temporary chairman of the democratic convention, he probably will be chairman of the committee on resolutions. He will be the representative of his state on that committee, and his position in the party is such that the place will be conceded to him. The general opinion is that he will prepare the greater part of the platform, and many think he now has much of it written but he is reticent on the subject.

Delegates were too much occupied today with the temporary chairmanship to give much close attention to resolutions, but in so far as there was expression on the subject it indicated a harmonious condition. Representatives of some eastern states express apprehension that there may be an effort to force approval of the initiative, referendum and recall. If there is, it will be opposed. Mr. Bryan has, however, indicated the opinion that these pertain only to state administration, and it is not believed that he will contend for any radical pronouncement on this subject.

There will be plans looking the party to the support of income tax legislation, to the election of senators by direct vote of the people and to primary elections.

The protection tariff will be held responsible for the trusts and the high cost of living, and there will be a positive declaration for rapid tariff revision downward. Probably the procedure schedule by schedule as practiced by the present house of representatives, will be advocated. The tariff votes are strongly condemned. It will be a tariff for revenue platform. All factions are committed to this plank and if there is any difference of opinion it will be on phrasology rather than policy.

CHILL NOT CAUSE OF PNEUMONIA, IS OPINION

No Such Thing As "Catching Cold." According to Medical Journal.

New York, June 24.—There is no such thing as "catching cold," according to a long discussion of the subject in the current issue of the New York Medical Journal. The article says:

"The chill that announces the onset of pneumonia or coryza (cold in the head) is obviously a symptom of infection already accomplished. The older writers regarded this chilliness rather as a cause than an effect and in that misconception we have one of the strongest groups of the 'catching-cold' delusion."

From the very instant of our arrival in this vale of tears the cold bogey is held up before us. Grandma, the inexorable, stands waiting for her cue to receive us in a warm flannel blanket. In our youth we were guarded and protected against weather and draughts. We may prevail upon mother to let us try the open-window stunt just one night, but she is sure to come creeping in along about 1 o'clock to close that window and put on an extra blanket.

"Draughts are as inevitable as the rising sun or the falling rain or the changing weather. A draught that causes no discomfort is an unmitigated blessing. Exposure to the weather—rain, shine, snow or blow—increases the resistance against infectious diseases, not alone respiratory, but every infectious disease we recognize. Our present outdoor treatment of pneumonia is the strongest possible proof of the value of cold air. All the world plagues are warm-weather diseases. Pneumonia is a disease of civilized peoples living in overheated houses."

"We feel are of no consequence unless they become uncomfortably cold, and cold feet are not a cause, but a sign of defective circulation. Plugging the feet into cold water does good, not harm, provided the reaction is obtained."
